The Gaithersburg Artist Collective, a juried group of 32 talented individuals working in a wide variety of mediums, brings its popular Artists on Market pop-up gallery to the Arts Barn for the holiday season. The Collective is a program of the Kentlands Community Foundation and was formed to provide opportunities for artists to exhibit and display their work, as well as provide work space, community outreach and arts education. The pop-up exhibit will feature both two and three-dimensional work. The Market also features year-round Arts Barn City Shop artists who have created new items for the holiday season.
